

International Center (B.I.C)

(B.I.C)

"Teach me thank you" free Campaign

"Volunteer Certificate"

The British International Center (B.I.C) is pleased to share that volunteer

Mr. Ahmed Wael Mohamed participated as an organizer in the free fully funded campaign to improve education in Egypt, "Teach me thank you," sponsored by the British International Center. We extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to the volunteer for his efforts in the campaign.

Objectives :

The aim of the "Teach Me thank you" volunteer campaign is to promote learning and knowledge sharing in the community. The campaign aims to create opportunities for individuals to learn new skills in various fields. Its objective is to enhance community education and learning culture, and provide free educational opportunities for individuals in the community. These opportunities include workshops, lectures, and educational courses in various fields such as technology, arts, health, languages, and more.

One of the main objectives of the campaign is to encourage personal development. The campaign can promote personal and professional development by providing resources and advice on communication skills, leadership, personal planning, and more.

Additionally, it aims to support e-learning by providing access to educational resources online and teaching basic technology skills necessary to fully benefit from online educational content.

Supervised by :

Prof/Dr. Aya Maher, Professor and HR Consultant at the American University in Cairo "AUC" and German Universities in Cairo "GUC", and a member of the Supreme Council for Culture (as a volunteer member).

Implemented by :

Dr. Sahar Kamal El-shazly, Campaign Executive Director. Doctorate at Arab Academy of science, technology and Maritime transport. And Executive Management at American University in Cairo "AUC".

56 Badr tower, Kournish El Maadi_ behind El Sadat Academy and In front of "Maadi Hotel"
Tel: 01007363781 - 01011053026